FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ride With The Best at Equine Affaire

POMONA, CA, February 1-4, 2007 – Horses and riders of all skill levels have the opportunity to directly interact with some of the most successful trainers and competitors in the country. Many Equine Affaire clinicians are seeking horses and riders to participate in their sessions during the event. Each clinician has specific profiles for the horses and/or riders they would like to work with, so all interested riders are strongly encouraged to apply.

Clinicians who will be accepting horses and riders for their sessions at Equine Affaire are:

- Kristie Peterson – Barrel Racing & Pole Bending
- Brenda Imus – Easy-Gaited Horses
- Chris Irwin – General Training
- Chris Cox – General Training
- Craig Cameron – Reining & Horsemanship
- Julie Goodnight – Straightforward Horsemanship
- Tim Grubb – Hunters & Jumpers
- Patrick Hooks – Ranch Horse Versatility
- Mary Midkiff – Rider Conditioning

Don't Miss Your Chance to Ride With The Best – Equine Affaire, Inc. will accept and forward all completed applications to the respective clinicians or their designated agents, who will make the selections. Those selected will receive a memorable learning experience in a clinic, general admission to Equine Affaire, and stabling. The application deadline is December 1, 2006. If you have any questions, please contact Betsy Battista at bbattista@equineaffaire.com or call 740-845-0085 ext. 117.
